

Night at the Library

The Montclair Public Library Foundation is raffling off a “Night at the Library.” If you win, you and 10 of your friends in grades 1 through 5 can have a very special sleepover at the Montclair Public Library. This is a first ever, very special opportunity!

Children and two parent chaperones will arrive at the Isabel Rose Café area of the Montclair Public Library at 7 p.m. and get their belongings settled. A scavenger hunt, guided by a member of the Montclair Public Library children’s department, will follow. The children will then have pizza in the café before watching a movie in the Library Auditorium. Cupcakes and a few favorite bedtime stories will follow. Children will enjoy bagels and juice and a morning craft before departing at 9 a.m.

This packages includes:

- Up to three pizzas and drinks from your favorite Montclair-area pizzeria.
- Cupcakes or cake from your favorite Montclair-area bakery.
- Bagels and choice of juice for breakfast.

Two parent chaperones must stay with the group for the duration of the party. Party can only be held on a Friday or Saturday night. Date must be mutually agreed upon between raffle winner and the Montclair Public Library. Sleepover must occur before December 31, 2011.

Only 300 tickets will be sold. Proceeds of this raffle will benefit the Montclair Public Library Foundation. Each raffle tickets costs $50.

Contact us at (973)744-0500 ext. 2222 or e-mail info@montclairplf.org with questions. To enter, visit www.montclairplf.org.

Drawing will be held 4 p.m. on October 23, 2010, in the Montclair Public Library at the conclusion of The Little Read 2010. Winner need not be present.
